CONTENTS

Page

Abstract. .....
Acknowledgment. .....
List of tables, charts and abbreviations. .....

1. Chapter One: Introduction.

1.1. Outline of the problem. 1
1.2. Background: Historical views. 2
1.2.1 Geographical location and climate. 2
1.2.2 Climate effects, patterns of movement and the nomadic/pastoral type of life: Dependence on livestock and agriculture up to 1940's. 3
1.2.3 Role of government in the settlement process and in the changes of patterns of work/modes of production. 4
1.2.4 Developments in land ownership and laws of land regulation. 6
1.2.5 Summary. 7
1.3 Reason for choosing the site. 8
1.4 Basta Today: Main features. 9
1.4.1 Population. 10
1.4.2 Administration..... 10
1.4.3 Public utilities and services: 12
1.4.3.1 Health services: The Clinic. 12
1.4.3.2 Education. 13
1.4.3.3 Water and electrical facilities. 14
1.4.3.4 Telephone services. 15
1.4.3.5 Transportation facilities. 15
1.4.4 The economy today 15
1.4.5 Other social and religious organizations: 17
1.4.5.1 El Jamieh. 17
1.4.5.2 The kindergarten. 17
1.4.5.3 The Library. 17
1.4.5.4 The Mosque. 18
1.4.6 Conclusion. 18
1.5 Research methodology. 19

2. Chapter Two: Literature review.

2.1. Introduction. 20
2.2 The Nature of nomadic societies in Middle East: some main facets of these societies. 21
2.2.1 Women inheritance. 21

2.2.2 Marriage patterns. 23
2.3 The kinship system and the complexity of classification and identity. 25
2.4 Settlement process and some of its implications within the context of social change over the 20th century in the Middle East. 31

3. Chapter three: Social structure: Kinship and descent.

3.1. Introduction. 37
3.2. The Origin of the Nu'aimat. 38
3.3 The classification of social units of Basta. 40
3.4 Main 'ashair of Basta. 43
3.5 Description and analysis of social units of Basta. 46
3.5.1 Bait. 47
3.5.2 Fakhd. 57
Case one. 60
Case two. 61
3.5.3 Hamulah. 64
3.5.4 'Ashira/'ashaier. 66
3.5.5 Qabila. 66
Case Three. 66
3.6 Residence and kinship: Spatial distribution. 71
3.7 Conclusion. 72

4. Chapter four: Settlement and land ownership.

4.1 Introduction. 74
4.2 The relation of Basta to other villages of the Nu'aimat: A micro-region perspective. 74
4.3 Settlement history at Basta. 76
4.4 Bedouins views on settlement. 76
4.5 Reasons for settlement of the Nu'aimat. 78
4.6 Patterns of settlement at Basta. 81
4.6.1 Old khirab. 81
4.6.1.1 Khirbet Hawwad. 81
4.6.1.2 Khirbet Basta. 83
4.6.1.3 Khirbet El-Jarabaa. 83
4.6.2 Modern Basta. 83
4.7 Analysis of structure units. 84
4.7.1 A unit of Khirbeh. 84
Case four: 86
4.8 Land ownership system at Basta. 89
Case five. 94

4.9 Civil Jordanian law of land inheritance. 95
4.10 Inheritance practice at Basta. 96
4.11 Conclusion. 97

5. Chapter five: Marriage at Basta and its relation to the context of the kinship system and settlement process.

5.1 Marriage process at Basta. 99
5.2 Patterns of marriage at Basta. 113
5.3 Marriage, kinship and spatial distribution. 108

6. Chapter six. Summary and conclusions.

Appendices. .....
Appendix A. Methodology. .....
Appendix B. The field work questionnaire. .....
Appendix C. Maps. .....
Appendix D. Statistics on land holding. .....
Appendix E. Genealogical chart. .....

Bibliography. .....
English Bibliography. .....
Arabic Bibliography. .....